SYNOPSIS FOR PASCAGOULA TO ATCHAFALAYA RIVER OUT 60 NM

Tropical Storm Bertha will meander northwest over the northeast Gulf for the next day or so. It is forecast to move westward along or off the north central gulf coast through Thursday. As the system moves over our local waters, expect winds and seas to increase with tropical storm conditions possible for most if not all the local waters. The system will move west of the region later Thursday and conditions should improve going into the upcoming weekend.
